Alma Mater

Hail to the dearest school of all,
Alma Mater mine.
Loyal we will be to thee,
Singing praises thine.
When high school days are over
And we leave this blessed shrine,
We'll win the victory and the Right for Alma Mater and
The blue and white.

Foreword

As the saying goes, "Time and tide wait for no man." Months have passed until it is now time for the eleventh edition of our Pep Pac.

In it, we have tried to tell the story of our school year, which has now slipped under the heavy curtain of time—never to return except in memory. During the past year, some time may have been wasted but most of it was used to help the individual or the school in general. In all the ways it was used—time marched on!

In one of his poems, Longfellow reminds us that:
Lives of great men all remind us,
 We can make our lives sublime,
And departing leave behind us,
 Footprints in the sands of time.

MR. F. D. KESLER

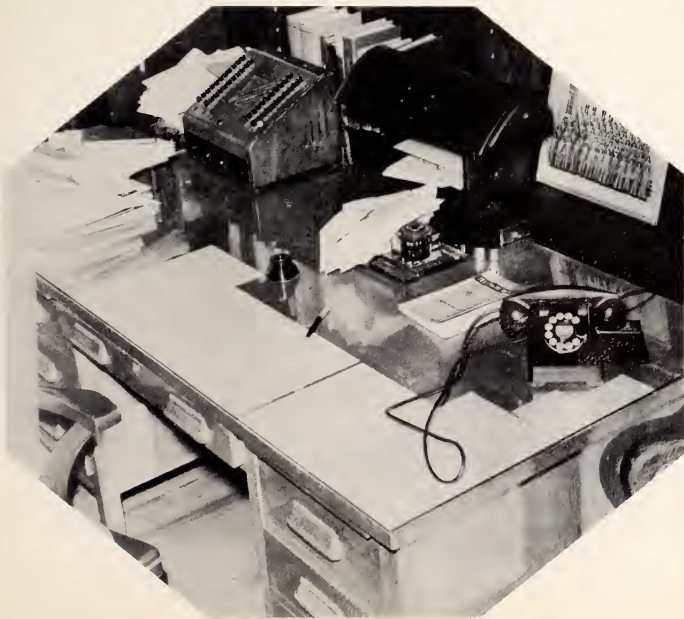

Dedication

The careful supervision of a school this size requires the services of a strong and responsible leader—one whose integrity and resourcefulness is sufficient to cope with the ever-changing ideas and attitudes of the students. We feel that we have such a counselor in our principal.

His many duties, which include extracurricular activities, as well as school work, do not keep him from having time to be keenly interested in any personal problem that a student may have.

He has always been able to lead us in the direction that will be most beneficial. He has tried in many ways and has succeeded in improving our school and community relations.

Thus it is with recognition and deep appreciation of his many services that we dedicate this, the 1956 edition of our Pep Pac, to Mr. F. D. Kesler, Principal of Henderson High School.

Class Poem

*Just as God wrote the Book of Life,
He writes for each human soul
A book that's meant for him alone
As he plays his given role;
Until, his story completed,
His book, alas, shall close;
And some will be true, and some, fiction.
'Til finished, who but God knows?*

*As our class faces graduation,
For each a chapter is ending.
Few of us know what services
The next page may show us rend'ring.
One page may make readers laugh;
Another fill them with woe.
Will yours be charged with adventure?
Or shine with the home-fire's glow?*

*No matter how bright or how dull the next,
The past chapter can't be forgot.
We'll remember happy school days,
But try to forget each blot.
We've made mistakes in this chapter;
We'll make more as years go by.
Let's profit by them, if we can.
We can, if only we'll try.*

*A book must have a purpose.
What is yours going to be?
Perhaps you know; perhaps, not.
As time goes by, you shall see;
For He who knows each tiny need
Of every man and nation
Has planned a task for each to do
Whate'er may be his station.*

*Only each author can convey
The purpose of his book.
It is he who first must write it there,
For no matter how hard you look,
Unless you want the author's message,
You'll learn but very little.
And though you search 'til the day you die,
Your life will remain a riddle.*

*It's almost time to turn the page
That leads to the unknown.
Whenever it's seemed too dark to read,
One candle always has shone:
The candle of God as he writes each page
While the plots of your lives unfold—
The Light that can make each life a classic,
Beautiful, True, and Well-Told.*

ANNELLA MOORE, Poet

Class History

It was a bright day in September 1953, when a group of students were eagerly awaiting a chance to enter Henderson High School for the first time in order to see if there really were an elevator to the third floor. We, the Seniors of 1956, were those "green freshmen." Immediately we began to organize ourselves. We chose as our leaders for this year Tommy Hannon, President; Fabian Broadway, Vice President; and Nancy Acrey, Secretary-Treasurer. Our sponsors were Miss Walser, Mr. Smith, Coach Morrison, and Miss Litaker.

In the fall of 1954 we returned to Henderson High School as Sophomores. This year we elected as our officers Tommy Hannon, President; Ruth Faulkner, Vice President; and Rose Faulkner, Secretary-Treasurer. Our sponsors were Miss Walser, Mr. Smith, Coach Morrison, and Mrs. Cobb. Some of our class had the honor of being elected waiters and waitresses for the Junior-Senior.

And then we were Juniors! By this time we felt that we were making some progress. We gave the Junior Play which was entitled "The Perfect Idiot." Also we had the job of making money in order to honor the Seniors with the Junior-Senior Banquet. Our theme was "An Evening In Paris." When the night of the banquet finally arrived we knew that our efforts and long hours of work and planning had been well spent for we believe our banquet to be the best ever given. With much enthusiasm and eagerness we finally received our class rings. This year Tommy Hannon was President; Bill Hart was Vice President; Ruth Faulkner was Secretary; and Joyce Darnell was Treasurer. This year we lost two of our sponsors but their places were quickly filled by Mrs. Glover and Miss Riddle; Mr. Smith remained with us.

The fall of '55 found us once again at Henderson High School. This time we entered as Seniors, the "upper classmen" of H.H.S. We had many things to look forward to such as the Senior Play, Junior-Senior Banquet, Washington Trip, and, last but not least, graduation. To lead us through our final year we chose Tommy Hannon, President; Barton Tuck, Vice President; Joyce Darnell, Secretary; and Betty Collins, Treasurer. Through the friendliness and sincere understanding of our sponsors Mrs. Glover, Miss Hughes, and Mr. Smith, we completed our Senior year at Henderson High School.

As we leave Henderson High School we shall look back and remember all the wonderful times and happy moments that we have had together and never shall we forget our dear Alma Mater.

Last Will and Testament

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
County of Vance
City of Henderson
Henderson High School

We, the Seniors of Henderson High School, of the year 1956, assuming that we are of sound mind and body, and realizing that we will soon be graduated from this cherished institution, wish to bequeath accordingly. We do hereby declare this our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I. To the Faculty

Item I. To Mr. Kesler we give thanks for helping us through the seventh periods, the elevators at the ends of the halls, and all other words of guidance through these our hardest years of yet.

Item II. To Mr. Hearne we leave the best band in the state. Keep it up, sir!

Item III. To all the faculty we leave a three months vacation. After us, they need it!

ARTICLE II. To This Institution

Item I. We leave the echoes of our little feet thundering through the halls.

ARTICLE III. To the Classes

Item I. To the Junior Class we leave you as rising Seniors—we hope!

Item II. To the Sophomore Class we leave you the Junior Play responsibility—please don't have a juke box!!!

Item III. To the Freshman Class—You have to initiate the new freshmen. Be careful!

ARTICLE IV. To the Individuals

Item I. Diana Page Abbott leaves her beauty and poise to Kay Mabry. She needs it?

Item II. Nancy Acrey leaves her sweet personality to her sister, Marian.

Item III. Bobby Lockemy leaves his title of "the best doggoned water boy in the history of this school" to anyone who thinks he can top it.

Item IV. Billy Page leaves his old car to Scott Hughes, figuratively speaking, in the hope that Scott will slow down.

Item V. Toots Breland leaves her center guarding position to Kay Weathers.

Item VI. Teddy Hart leaves her height to Frances Perry with this word to the wise—Eat your vitamins, girl!

Item VII. Billy Davidson leaves Harvey Oxendine his ability to be late to First Period. Let's hope Harvey can get by with it just like Billy did.

Item VIII. Charles Johnson leaves his manufactured curly hair to Gene Adcock. Your crew-cut ought to look mighty sharp curled in an Italian Bob!

Item IX. Claude Capell leaves his Lux Pinto Beans to the lunchroom.

Item X. Bill Hart leaves his basketball ability to his sister, Pat. I hope she uses it on the girls' team, not on the boys' team like Bill did?

Item XI. Bobby Harper leaves typing.

Item XII. Betty Sanford and Martha Smiley leave their quiet personality and ability to get along with everyone to Patricia Leviner.

Item XIII. John Wallace leaves his "Bulldog Special" to Maurice Jones. Oh, one thing—don't sell yours!

Item XIV. Frances Falkner and Betty Joyce Wiggins pass on the talent for talking ANYtime, ANYwhere, and about ANYthing to Tommy Badger and Ann Hoyle.

Item XV. Nancy White leaves her ability to get Stanley out of class to Gail Cowan. Maybe she, too, can be a pal to some boy.

Item XVI. Tommy Hannon leaves his brains and brawn to Dickie Carter.

Item XVII. Robert Neal leaves to Norman Arey his "cat" nip, wicked laugh, and the expression, "Go, Daddy-O, Go!"

Item XVIII. Annella Moore bequeaths her figure perfect to Catherine Church.

Item XIX. Ferebee Pulliam, "Big-Um" and Barbara Holmes, "Little-Un" leave their contrast to Jenny Temple and Betty Yarborough.

Item XX. Charlie Loughlin leaves his dry, sly wit and cool clothes to John Crudup.

Item XXI. Elmo Murphy leaves his "modesty (?)" in class to Jimmy Neathery. Remember it sometimes pays to be modest.

Item XXII. Charlotte Mixon leaves her "quiet" talent to Barbara Proctor and "Pooky" Carde leaves his "riot" talent to Shannon Rogers. Don't let them down, girls.

- Item XXIII. Sandra McIver leaves her Gracie Allen wit to Farrell Wheeler. Need I say more?
- Item XXIV. "Iil' Man" Wright leaves his record of the ten second run around the typing room to Wade Renn.
- Item XXV. Bobbie Lee McPherson leaves her courage and determination to everyone.
- Item XXVI. Ray Woodlief leaves his talent for giving directions to Career Day students to next years Student Council president.
- Item XXVII. Billy Royster leaves his golden vocal cords to Al Hendricks.
- Item XXVIII. Eugene Barnes, Lonnie Faucette, and L. A. Harris are happy to announce their departure—they hope!
- Item XXIX. Nancy Finch leaves her ability to make Shelby draw everyone's attention to her to Betty Ann Wright.
- Item XXX. June Casper leaves her hidden whistle to Carolyn Royster to use in shorthand class.
- Item XXXI. Dora Anne, Mary Ann, Carol Ann, and Anne Laws leave their gift of gab to Ferebee Abbott, Peggy Cates, and Margie House.
- Item XXXII. Hartwell Hight and Charles Cates leave their bass voices to Barney Geoghegan.
- Item XXXIII. Shelby Hughes leaves her versatility to Eugenia Allen.
- Item XXXIV. Stanley Roberson leaves his "Roberson Walk" to Billy Stone.
- Item XXXV. Marie Hope bequeaths her vivacious smile and dancing eyes to Jane Reavis.
- Item XXXVI. Ernie Hux, M. J. Jackson, Dick Frazier, and Hollis Harris all pass on their go, on the gridiron, to Richard Faulkner, Al Taylor, and Tommy Richardson.
- Item XXXVII. "Doc" White leaves his uncanny humor to the lucky boy voted as next year's "Wittiest." Can you top Doc?
- Item XXXVIII. Our "Casanova," Billy Wright, leaves his book entitled "How to be Engaged to Two Girls in One Year in Ten Easy Lessons" to sophomore Don Juan, Ed Payne.
- Item XXXIX. Shelby Blanks, June Watkins, Virginia Matthews and Alice Walters leave their quietness in class to the teachers.
- Item XL. Martha Parham bequeaths her generosity and 24-hour-a-day niceness to Jerry Perry.
- Item XLI. Maurice Allen and Tony Rogers leave their honored positions as Co-Captains of the football squad to next year's so honored.
- Item XLII. Lennie Swanson and Larry Grissom leave their pixie-like size.
- Item XLIII. Barton Tuck leaves his task of the drawing of copy sheets for the Pep-Pac to next year's unfortunate sucker.
- Item XLIV. Walter Vaughan leaves his inability to find anything to do to Andrew Harper.
- Item XLV. Mary Ann Jordan, Sonya Jenkins, Joyce Darnell, Nancy Collins, and Ann Harper leave their athletic prowess in the field of catching their men before they graduate to any of the girls that feel they need it.
- Item XLVI. Betty Collins leaves her fingers to the typist for the Annual next year. You'll need an extra set!
- Item XLVII. Frances Spain leaves her speed talking to Judy Passavant to break Frances's record of 120 wpm.
- Item XLVIII. John Thomas leaves his ardent-follower position of UNC, and his teasing Shelby Hughes about State to Emory Taylor to tease Toots with.
- Item XLIX. Whit Parham, Gary Rogers, Bobby Pearce, and Billy Hanford leave that rare gem of boyish solicitude to Miss Kilpatrick.
- Item L. Taylor Neathery leaves his wanton urge to argue to Arnom Harris to use in U.S. History.
- Item LI. "Red" Newman and Bobby Davis leave their enthusiastic sale of Bar-B-Q tickets to Alva Terrell and Philip Strause in the event there is a Senior Bar-B-Q next year.
- Item LII. Marie Powell and Robert Parker bequeath their positions on "Bulldog Bull-Cession" to Betsy and Tommy Badger.
- Item LIII. Earl Roberson leaves his morning-after-the-night-before lips to Janet Pearce.
- Item LIV. Nancy Rodwell and Ginger Greene leave their unassumed attractiveness to Joyce Raynor and Pat Shuman.
- Item LV. Ralph Mason leaves his handwriting to anyone who can decipher it!
- Item LVI. Geraldine Harris and Kay Johnson are content just to graduate.
- Item LVII. Beverly Beck leaves her revolutionary movements and make-up to Patricia Gholson.
- Item LVIII. Ruth Faulkner leaves her flagbearer uniform to next year's replacement with the hope that she won't have to alter it much.

In Witness Whereof, I, Rose Faulkner, Testator, do set my hand and seal hereto the seventh day of June in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty-six. (1956)

ROSE FAULKNER, Testator

School days and songs become more dear . . . The older that we grow . . . The faces and the places and . . . The Dreams that we all know . . . The days when youth is in its bloom . . . The songs we learn to sing . . . These are the warm, enchanting thoughts . . . We keep remembering . . . Yes, there were moments made for tears . . . And moments of regret . . . But sadness can be sweet, with no . . . Desire to forget . . . Somehow the sun seemed brighter then . . . The nights a little longer . . . And faith and hope and courage were . . . Perhaps a little stronger . . . Somehow our youth is everything . . . That will never disappear . . . We Seniors have memories of precious moments we'll always endear.

Student Council

The Student Council, which is made up of a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer of the high school and a boy and girl elected from each home-room, is the most active and central student organization of Henderson High School.

The Student Council operates a school store each year. It also aids in decorating the school at Christmas and preparing chapel programs. This year the main projects undertaken by the council were Religious Emphasis Week and reprinting the Blue and White. This year the council sent three delegates to the State Convention held in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. Miss Clyde Hunter, Advisor, accompanied the group.

Promoting good-will among the students and improving the school is the main function of this organization. It has as its goal the uniting of the students and faculty in order that all work together toward a better school.

Latin Club

The purpose of the Latin Club is to promote a better understanding of the language and the people who used it. This year we have had reports at the meetings, put on our annual banquet, put out a Latin newspaper, and studied Roman culture.

Among the projects of the club were the collection of toys for needy children at Christmas, the formation of a Dramatics Club, and the sponsoring of a dancing class for members of the club. The Club plans to join the Junior Classical League and thereby become a member of the national organization.

The Key Club is composed of the 'Key boys' in our school. It is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and is designed to serve the school and community as do the Kiwanians. The prime objectives of the club are: to develop initiative, leadership, character, and the experience and practical education that will help members find a place in life.

The Key Club has made its mark on the school in that it has won the Finer Henderson High School award two years straight. Annually, it sponsors several projects in order to make money for the betterment of the school.

This club is only a small part of the many Key Clubs in our nation today. It holds annual district and international conventions and has been represented in the District Convention for the past several years. The Key Club is serving the community, inasmuch as it has become a drill ground for community leadership and service.

The Bus Drivers

With the aid of the North Carolina Department of Highway Safety, the bus drivers have had an excellent record for the past few years. This year an additional amount of work was put forth in order to better familiarize the drivers with their duties and responsibilities.

Twelve hours of invaluable instruction by Mr. Al Howell furnished the necessary "basic training" for all the old and new drivers in Vance County. The class was held in the Henderson High School auditorium during the early fall.

The bus drivers of Vance County ask each of you, as drivers of North Carolina, to please obey the ten commandments of driving.

COACH WILSON

Since convincing him that this was the best school after all, and having completed one year as Head Football Coach with us, we were fortunate in having Coach Shirley S. "Red" Wilson back again this year.

Coach Wilson was graduated from Madison High School, Madison, North Carolina and received his B. S. degree at Davidson. He has held coaching positions at Selma, Henderson, South Norfolk, and Henderson again. Our hat's off to Coach Wilson for a truly great year of football.

COACH SHEARIN

Miss Dorothy Shearin, our fine girls' athletic director, graduated from John Graham High School in Warrenton, North Carolina.

She attended East Carolina College, where she received her A. B. degree in Physical Education. She later became the head of the Physical Education Department in the New Hanover High School in Wilmington, North Carolina. Then came the lucky break for Henderson. She accepted a position here and since her arrival the girls' basketball team has had many successful years.

COACH PIESTRAK

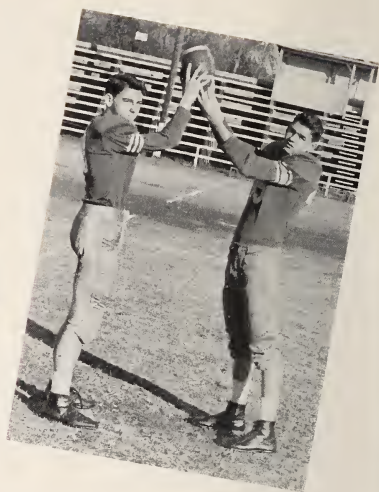

After graduating from Wilkes Barre High School in Pennsylvania, Coach Emil S. Piestrak served in the Air Force and played professional basketball and baseball.

Coach Piestrak attended East Carolina College, where he received his Master of Arts degree. He is now completing his second year at Henderson High, and we think he has done a swell job in leading the boys' basketball and baseball teams to many victories.

Can you picture a ballgame without any cheer leaders? No, I'm sure you can't because wherever there's a ballgame there's sure to be cheerleaders.

These twelve girls dressed in their attractive uniforms lead the school songs and yells. They must and do have the vim, vigor and vitality needed to cheer our team to victory.

THE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF

ROSE'S 5-10-25_C STORES

Are proud of our schools — of the progress they have made and are making — of their facilities and their pupils.

It is a source of pride, too, that so large a per cent of faculty members and students patronize Rose Stores for School Supplies and other variety requirements and that the list of such valued patrons is steadily increasing.

It is the aim of those who determine the policies of Rose Stores to make the values and service offered in their stores justify your confidence and support.

I did this page
I'm a bad bad boy!
Badger!!

Through periods of the day
and hours at night,

We racked our brains with all our might.

We worried and rushed to finish on time;

We knew we couldn't run over our deadline.

You'll never know the anxious moments we knew;

While waiting for the finished product to come through.

Now, behind the heavy curtain of time
we've stepped,

And hope that in your annual, memories
will be kept.

Autographs

"Your words will be here
After time and tide"

Autographs

"It took us quite a time to edit this,
So you take your time in signing"

Autographs

"Time will take you, but
These will remain"
